

AQA(A)- Unit 1 Attachment

Keeping track.... What you need to learn	Could make a basic attempt	Could make a good attempt	Know it well
Definition of attachment
Behaviours which show attachment
Schaffer and Emerson (1964) describe and evaluate Explanations of attachment
Learning approach explanation of attachment: describe and evaluate Bowlby's evolutionary theory of attachment describe and evaluate
The Strange Situation (Ainsworth, 1978) describe and evaluate Types of attachment
Cross-cultural variations in attachment
Disruption of attachment and institutionalisation
Institutionalisation: link to Bowlby's theory Hodges and Tizard: describe and evaluate Privation link to Bowlby's theory Hodges and Tizard: describe and evaluate Severe privation: Genie and the Koluchova twins
Are the effects of privation reversible? Explain the factors which influence the outcome i.e. quality of substitute care, age of the child ...
Impact of day care on children's social and emotional development
Aggressive behaviour <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1 study which shows an increase of aggressive behaviour: EPPE project (1991) 1 study which shows less aggressive behaviour: Shea et al (1981) Evaluation of these studies
Peer relationships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 2 studies which shows beneficial effects of day care on social development i.e. Shea (1981) 1 study which shows negative effects of social development _DiLalla (1988) Evaluation of these studies
Characteristics of good day care provision
Ratio children to carer Carer trained to respond sensitively to children Low turnover of staff Mixed age groups Warm safe environment Cognitive stimulation (toys story telling...)			